(d) whether any effort in future are being made to implement the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (DR. RAMAN SINGH): (a) In its annual Special 301 report for 2002, released by United States Trade Representative (USTR), India has been retained in the priority watch list alongwith fourteen other countries for, inter-alia, not providing an adequate level of protection for intellectual property rights.

(b) to (d) In order to comply with India's international obligations in respect of patents contained in the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights, a Bill to amend the Patents Act, 1970 has been passed by Rajya Sabha on 9th May, 2002 and is now to be considered by Lok Sabha.

Textile case against US

5005. PROF. M. SANKARALINGAM: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether India would take US to WTO body in textile cases as reported in the Indian Express, dated the 16th April, 2002; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI RAJIV PRATAP RUDY): (a) and (b) On 11 January, 2002 India requested formal consultations with the United States under the Dispute Settlement Mechanism of the World Trade Organisation (WTO) regarding the changes in rules of origin for textiles and apparel products set out in the United States' Uruguay Round Agreements Act and the Trade and Development Act of 2000. India has questioned the compatibility of the changes with the provisions of the Agreement on Rules of Origin according to which rules of origin shall not themselves create restrictive, distorting or disruptive effects on international trade, shall not be discriminatory, and shall be administered in a consistent, uniform, impartial and reasonable manner. Formal consultations have been held with the United States on 7 February 2002 and 26 March 2002.
